BOOKER T. WASHINGTON
(1856 - 1915)

To note the Bicentennial each division page will feature a famous American.

Booker T. Washington worked diligently building Tuskegee Institute from a few buildings to a vital educational institution. He advocated industrial training for blacks and is sometimes criticized for this stand.

BEAVERS IN ACTION!

RICHARD ALLEN
(1760-1831)

Born a slave, Richard Allen worked as a wood cutter and wagoner to buy his and his brother's freedom in 1783. Following the Revolutionary War, blacks were discouraged from worshiping in churches with white congregations. In 1787 Allen led fellow black worshipers from such a white church and set about organizing the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The church organization grew and is in existence to this day.

COMMUNITY AIDE

PURPOSE: An advocate for the student, liaison for the schools and homes, in order to bring about a more positive working relationship to obtain a higher and better educational level.

WE BELIEVE
Every child can learn.

The school is a community institution.

Good education is the result of parents, teachers and pupils working together.

There are new and interesting ways of teaching.

Each child's learning needs are different.

Each child should feel important as a person.

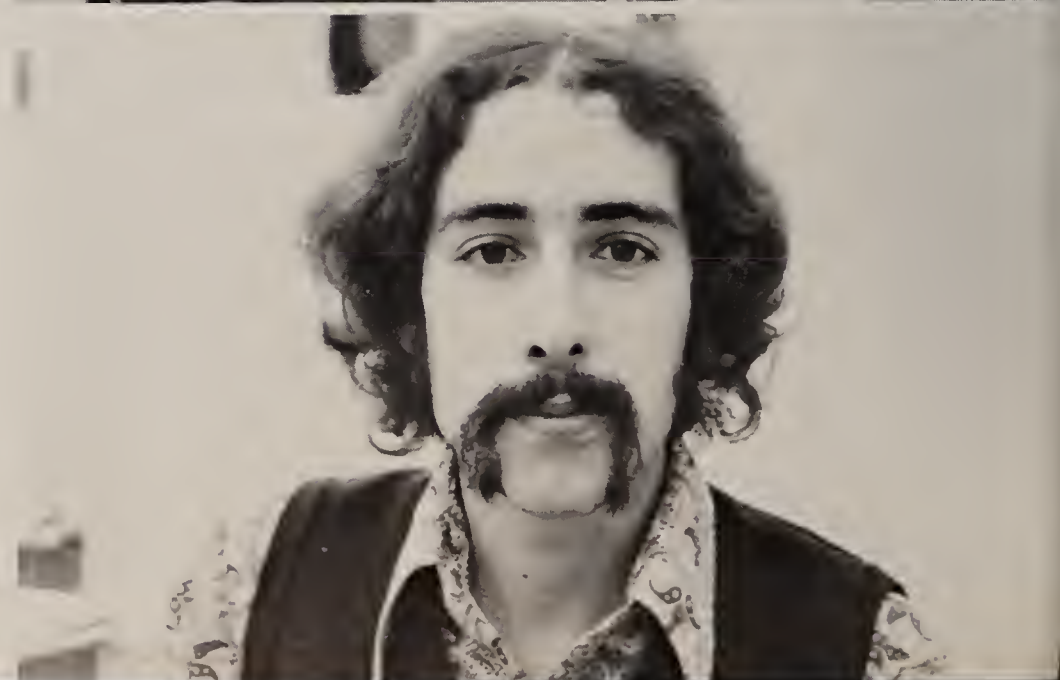

The school program must contribute to the moral and spiritual values of the child.

Every adult should feel responsible to all the children in the community.

The best discipline is self-discipline.

PARENTS NEED THE HELP OF TEACHERS, AND TEACHERS NEED THE HELP OF PARENTS. UNITED WE CAN GO FORWARD POSITIVELY.

A very special thank you goes to Miss Darby and Mr. White for serving as Senior Class Advisors. Although we seldom took the time to express it, we do appreciate all the time and effort that you put in to make our last year a memorable one.

In the background of this picture is Derrick Mahorn whose quiet but tireless effort did much to make this yearbook possible. Thanks Too Tall!

MISS BERRY

DEDICATION

In appreciation for your outstanding teaching and your concern for your students we take pleasure in dedicating THE PRIDE OF '76 to you.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

1929-1968

In 1955 when Mrs. Rosa Parks was arrested for refusing to give her seat on a Montgomery bus to a white man, Dr. King organized a bus boycott which brought him to national attention. He continued until his death by an assassin's bullet to promote non-violent resistance in the Civil Rights Movement. One of his famous quotes was, "Let no man drag you so low as to hate." Among the many recognitions he received for his life work was the Nobel Peace Prize.

TO OUR PARENTS:

We thank you for your support when the going was rough, your encouragement and your enthusiasm when we succeeded.
